The National Kitchen & Bath Association Reveals the NKBA 2019 Design Competition Judges
Designers compete for $62,000 in prizes and will be honored at KBIS 2019 in Las Vegas.

(Hackettstown, NJ) June 6, 2018 — The National Kitchen & Bath Association (NKBA) announces the 2019 judges of the industry’s most prestigious kitchen and bath design competition. NKBA’s annual contest recognizes excellence in design and execution of residential kitchen and bath projects. The projects must have been completed between January 1, 2017, and July 2, 2018, to be considered for the 2019 winners’ circle. The competition closes July 2.

The esteemed panel of judges include:

Bob Borson, NKBA Insider and Architect
Malone Maxwell Borson Architects

_Dallas architect Bob Borson, AIA, LEED AP, is widely recognized as the blogger behind Life of an Architect—one of the world’s most popular architectural blogs. In 2009, Borson was named Dallas Chapter AIA Young Architect of the Year. The firm went on to be named 2013 Dallas American Institute of Architects Firm of the Year, and received the 2015 Award for the Promotion of Architecture through the Media, and in 2017, Elevation into the AIA College of Fellows._

Winners of the NKBA 2019 Design Competition will be honored at KBIS 2019 in Las Vegas, February 19-21, 2019. The 2019 competition has introduced several new categories and has developed an easy, online-submission process. Among the 11 main competition categories are two new areas: concept kitchen and concept bath. Some of the existing categories have changed as well: The Large Kitchen and Large Bath categories have been expanded to the Large Luxury Kitchen and Large Luxury Bath, and the Large Budget-Friendly Kitchen and Large Budget-Friendly Bath.

Entrants must be members of NKBA.

Category awards carry the following prizes: First Place: $3,000; Second Place: $2,000; Third Place: $1,000. There are also prizes for Best Universal Design for a kitchen or bath ($2,000), and grand prizes for Best Overall Kitchen and Best Overall Bath are $10,000 each.

Finally, the honorary Clay Lyon Builder/Remodeler award is presented to the winning project submitted by a builder or remodeler.

About KBIS
KBIS, in conjunction with the National Kitchen & Bath Association (NKBA), is an inspiring, interactive platform that showcases the latest industry products, trends and technologies. KBIS is the voice of the kitchen and bath industry and has been for 50 years.

Early in 2013, the NKBA and National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) announced an agreement to co-locate the Kitchen & Bath Industry Show (KBIS) with the International Builders’ Show (IBS) in Las Vegas in February 2014 under the banner of Design & Construction Week®. The mega-event will return Feb. 19-21, 2019, in Las Vegas. Kitchen and bath brands that have participated in both shows can continue to choose to exhibit in the KBIS or IBS hall. One pass will provide access to both exhibitions. NKBA and NAHB will continue to produce separate educational programming and special events.

KBIS is operated by Emerald Expositions, the largest operator of business-to-business trade shows in the United States, with most of our shows dating back several decades. We currently operate more than 50 trade shows, including 31 of the top 250 trade shows in the country as ranked by TSNN, as well as numerous other events. Our events connect over 500,000 global attendees and exhibitors and occupy more than 6.9 million NSF of exhibition space. We have been recognized with many awards and accolades that reflect our industry leadership as well as the importance of our shows to the exhibitors and attendees we serve.
