CONTEMPORARY KITCHEN
• SMALL (UNDER 250 SQUARE FEET)
• LARGE (250 SQUARE FEET AND OVER)
Modern and minimalist, the distinguishing characteristics of contemporary kitchens include clean colors, stainless-steel workstation sinks, slab backsplashes, flat panel/slab cabinet doors, column and drawer refrigeration and integrated hardware.

CONTEMPORARY BATHROOM
• SMALL (UNDER 55 SQUARE FEET)
• LARGE (55 SQUARE FEET AND OVER)
Contemporary bathrooms are minimalistic with clean lines, flowing curves and hard angles. Characteristics of this popular style include stained concrete floors, floating vanities made of laminate or acrylic, integrated sinks, slab surround tile, smart faucets and keypad controls.

TRADITIONAL KITCHEN
• SMALL (UNDER 250 SQUARE FEET)
• LARGE (250 SQUARE FEET AND OVER)
Classic and timeless, traditional kitchens are defined by their eye-catching details such as architectural moldings, luxury countertops, decorative lighting, custom hoods and backsplash niches and ledges. Traditional kitchens often feature raised-panel doors in furniture-style cabinets, generally glazed or made to look aged and distressed, as well as wood panels that conceal pantries or refrigerators.

TRADITIONAL BATHROOM
• SMALL (UNDER 55 SQUARE FEET)
• LARGE (55 SQUARE FEET AND OVER)
Traditional bathrooms are best known for their attention to detail. Distinguishing characteristics of a traditional bathroom are molding on ceilings, armoires and cabinets, unique tilework, antique-style lighting fixtures and brushed nickel and oil-rubbed bronze faucets. Classic wainscoting or wallpaper are common on the walls of traditional bathrooms in soft whites, pale blues and greens, or neutral colors like white, black, gray and brown.
